Modalities adopted	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. Scrutiny has been done online, first on the basis of the report generated by the computer system as per the information filled up /claims made therein by the candidates in their online application and thereafter by scrutiny of the supporting documents uploaded along with the same only in respect of candidates whose applications are prima-facie found eligible on the basis of information filled up/ claims made by them in the online applications. ii. The scrutiny of the applications has been done strictly as per the provisions of the Recruitment Rules for the post in question. iii. Total experience claimed by the candidates has been taken into consideration, if supported by necessary certificates.

- iv. Experience possessed in the relevant fields specified in the advertisement after obtaining/qualifying the essential educational qualifications has been taken into account. As per provisions of the Recruitment Rules, the minimum requisite experience of 10 years in the different fields as stated in Essential Qualifications has been taken stand alone for determining the eligibility of the candidates for the post in question. If the candidate has experience beyond the minimum requisite experience of 10 years, in the different fields as stated in Essential Qualifications, such experience has been taken into account for determining the eligibility etc of the candidate.
- v. If experience is not in the relevant field as specified in Recruitment Rules and advertisement of the post or the calculated relevant experience is less than the essential period as specified in the Recruitment Rules, such candidates have been rejected under “LEQ-B”. Applicants who claim relevant experience but the EC attached in support of that do not support the claim made are also rejected as ‘LEQ-B’.
- vi. The candidates who do not possess the relevant essential educational qualification have been rejected as “LEQ-A”. If the candidate does not possess the Desirable Qualification, such candidate has been rejected under “LDQ”.
- vii. Candidates falling inside the consideration zone on account of their total claimed experience but having relevant experience as calculated during scrutiny less than the enhanced experience but greater than the essential experience as per the RRs have been rejected under the category ‘LEC (Lacking Enhanced Criteria)’.
- viii. Candidates falling outside the consideration zone on account of their total claimed experience less than the enhanced experience have been rejected under the category ‘BCA (Better Candidates Available)’.
- ix. Experience Certificate must be uploaded/ available to ascertain the eligibility of the candidate. Hence, applications of candidates who have not uploaded/ furnished experience certificate, have been rejected as “Incomplete Application”. Experience Certificates without clearly specifying the nature of duties have also not been considered and rejected as ‘Incomplete’. Similarly, applicants who claim relevant experience but the EC attached in support of that is not of the entire duration claimed or do not support the claim made are also rejected as “Incomplete”.
- x. The applications of the candidates who have neither produced the marksheets nor degree of the essential educational qualifications have been rejected under the Category of “Incomplete Applications”. If the uploaded documents by the candidate are not legible, application of such candidates have also been rejected as “Incomplete application”.
- xi. Appointment Letters, Office Orders, Registration/Enrolment Certificate, Resignation Letters, Relieving Orders, pay certificates and self employment certificates have not been considered as proof of experience. Also, experience as ‘Intern’ has also not been treated as relevant experience. Experience while working in Banks/Public Sector Undertakings have not been taken into account. The experience as Prosecutor in a Government Department/Agency has also been taken into account alongwith the experience as Advocate for deciding the eligibility of the candidates.
- xii. Experience certificates should be in prescribed proforma in terms of Commission’s circular No.F.8/84/2010-R(C&P) dated 23.12.2010. However, wherever the applicants have not submitted experience certificates in prescribed proforma, their experience certificates have been considered on merit basis.
- xiii. Some of the candidates can be rejected under more than one category. They have been rejected under the most appropriate category.
